THE END OF MEAT?

Can Americans survive without their burgers?

This question raises many issues – nutritional, moral and environmental.

Join us for a discussion with Dr. Walter Willett, Harvard Professor of Epidemiology and Nutrition, Nina Ghelman, sociologist at the Weatherhead Center for International Affairs and mushroom entrepreneurs, Truman French and Tucker Florzheimer to learn how our eating decisions affect not just us, but the entire planet.

FREE and open to all. Book signing to follow.
